

Irene M. Koch, Esq.

Executive Vice President and General Counsel

---

Irene M. Koch is the Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Healthix, Inc., a regional health information organization (RHIO) in New York City, where she is responsible for overseeing legal affairs, including privacy and data governance matters, and is involved in operations and strategic initiatives supporting innovative patient-centered models of care. Ms. Koch served as Executive Director of Brooklyn Health Information Exchange (BHIX) from 2007-2013, at which time it merged with Healthix. Ms. Koch was Associate General Counsel at Maimonides Medical Center in Brooklyn, from 1996-2006. Previously, she was Assistant Counsel with the New York State Department of Health in the Bureau of Professional Medical Conduct (1994-96) and a litigation associate at Willkie Farr & Gallagher (1989-1994). Ms. Koch earned a J.D. from Fordham University School of Law and a B.A. from Cornell University.

